

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

MARCH 5, 1880.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. WITHERS, from the Committee on Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

[To accompany bill S. 1166.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (S. 1166) granting a pension to James H. Stevens, late captain Company C, Eighty-third New York Volunteers, having examined the bill and accompanying papers, find that the applicant was allowed a pension of $5 per month for partial deafness December 14, 1862; that this was increased to $10 per month May 31, 1879, and that he now desires further increase. No testimony is filed to establish the fact that the medical examiners have not properly rated his disability, and the committee consequently ask that the bill be indefinitely postponed.
